RAILWORKS CORPORATION APPOINTS
NEW LEADER OF U.S. TRACK OPERATIONS

John Young Named Executive Vice President

New York, N.Y. – (April 21, 2014) – RailWorks Corporation, a leading provider of track and transit systems construction and maintenance services throughout North America, announced today that John Young has been named executive vice president with responsibility for the company’s U.S. track operations.

Young will lead RailWorks’ U.S. track operations, which provide track construction, maintenance and rehabilitation services throughout the United States and include RailWorks Track Services Inc. and RailWorks Track Systems Inc. Together these two operating units account for about 45 percent of overall corporate revenues.

Young brings strong leadership capabilities and extensive experience in transportation and heavy civil works projects developed over the past 20 years working for major contractors, including Kiewit and Zachry Construction. He most recently served as Senior Vice President at Zachry Construction, a heavy and building construction contractor based in San Antonio, Texas.

“John has a unique combination of life experiences, education and professional work history that make him an excellent fit for RailWorks,” said RailWorks Corporation President & CEO Jeffrey M. Levy. “He will work closely with our leadership teams to capitalize on significant growth opportunities to expand our operations to serve new customers, develop the scope of our services, and improve our service delivery to meet the increasing needs of the market.”
