RAILWORKS CORPORATION APPOINTS
VICE PRESIDENT OF HUMAN RESOURCES

Harry Glantz to Lead Human Resources Initiatives For Growing Construction Services Provider

New York, NY - (November 11, 2008) – RailWorks Corporation, a leading provider of track and transit systems construction services throughout the United States and Canada, announced today the appointment of Harry Z. Glantz as vice president of human resources.

Glantz comes to RailWorks with more than 25 years of human resources management experience. He most recently served as senior vice president of human resources for the North American subsidiary of ITOCHU Corporation. Prior to that he held human resources leadership positions at several growing enterprises, including Atari, Inc. (formerly GT Interactive Software), Citicorp and Steinway Musical Properties.

In his new position, Glantz will lead the human resources functions for RailWorks and all of its subsidiaries. Based at the company’s corporate headquarters in New York, NY, Glantz is responsible for benefits programs, compensation, employee relations, training and development as well as HR-related policies, procedures and systems.

“RailWorks will benefit from Harry Glantz’ broad experience with rapidly growing, entrepreneurial companies,” said RailWorks President and CEO Jeffrey M. Levy. “Human resources programs are an increasingly important part of RailWorks’ strategy to meet the challenges of our markets. Harry’s insights and capabilities will be a great asset for us as we manage changes associated with growth in all our business segments. He will help us attract, retain and develop the industry’s most qualified employees.”
